Truth About Money: The Worst Fraud/Crime in American History: The Federal Reserve Banking Act

Money controls, funds and determines virtually everything that happens in the modern, increasingly digital financial world. As Americans, we must ask who ultimately and morally deserves to own the rights and benefits of money creation? The choice is obvious. All Americans deserve to benefit. Find out how in this hardhitting little book. Hardback, 165 pages, #IAM, $16.

Are We a Nation of Sheep?

Judge Andrew P. Napolitano holds a "conversation" with the American voter, asking questions that demand answers: If taxes continue to rise while the government gets worse, why do we continue to pay the taxes and re-elect those who raised them? Why does the government never acknowledge a mistake, and why do we accept that? What happened to our unalienable rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness guaranteed by the Declaration of Independence? And many more. In his new book, Judge Napolitano confronts the government head on. Hardback, 256 pages, #NS, $29. Just $26 for AFPRC members.

Uncle Sam Wants You—World War I and the Making of the Modern American Citizen

Christopher Capozzola shows how America at first mobilized society to the requirements of World War One by stressing duty, obligation, and responsibility over rights and freedoms. But the heated temper of war made America the scene of some of the nation's most serious political violence. To solve this problem, Americans turned increasing amounts of power to the central government. In the end, Americans of the WWI era created a new American state, and new ways of being American citizens. Hardback, 334 pages, #SAM, $38. Just $35 for AFPRC members.

Attack on the Liberty—The Untold Story

On June 8, 1967, Israel surprisingly launched a deadly attack upon a lightly armed American ship cruising off the coast of Egypt. When the attack ended, 34 of the USS Liberty's crew were dead and 171 others were injured, many of them critically. James Scott's father was aboard the Liberty, so he had exceptional access to the inside story of the attack. As a former newspaper reporter, Scott knows how to dig for facts, and his book resonates with the results of his relentless search for the truth. Unfortunately, it would appear that the Israeli government has been unwilling to conduct its own truthful investigation. Anyone reading Scott's account of the encounter may be infuriated by the diplomatic and military deceit on both sides. Hardcover, 384 pages, #LLB, $30. Just $27 for AFPRC members.

Perfidy: The Government Cabal That Betrayed our POWs/MIAs

John McCain and others in the U.S. government are supposed to be fighters for our soldiers. But what is the truth about McCain and the cabal behind the suppression of facts regarding the U.S. MIAs and POWs from World War II to the present? Are there still U.S. servicemen still alive in Vietnam? What happened to our soldiers shipped off to the Soviet Union? Who is stonewalling the effort to find out? Softcover, 224 pages, #PFD, $25. U.S. military/vets pay just $19 for this book.

At the 2008 POW/MIA rally in Washington, D.C. over Memorial Day, AFP filmed three amazing video interviews with POW/MIA activists. One was the father of a lost soldier who discovered his son is still alive and kept as a slave. Another recounts the experience of a POW imprisoned by the North Vietnamese. The third tells the tale of a wife whose husband was captured and his existence denied. DVD, 83 minutes, #LB, $20. Two or more are $15 each.
