

Every year, Liberals,
Zionists and other Globalists
and Internationalists
write off donations to their favorite causes on their income tax returns.

Now it's YOUR TURN to do the same thing!

Every year, fat cats save big money

on their taxes by donating to their favorite tax-deductible charities. Now, here's an opportunity for America's patriots, nationalists and Constitutionalists to do the same thing . . .

If you are looking for a tax deduction for your 2007 income taxes, please consider making a donation to the FOUNDATION TO DEFEND THE FIRST AMENDMENT (FDFA): America's preeminent protector of the First Amendment . . .

Dear Friend:

FDFA has been described as the patriot's counterpoint to the American Civil Liberties Union and the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) of B'nai B'rith—but it's much more than that . . .

Dedicated to defending our First Amendment and the liberties it ensures all Americans, FDFA has been in the forefront of defending the rights of patriots for over a decade . . .

Our Founding Fathers never intended the First Amendment to be used as a shield to defend pornographers and child molesters.

No, the Founding Fathers intended the First Amendment to promote and defend vigorous and free-flowing debate in the areas of science, religion, philosophy, history and politics.

FDFA's purpose is to vigorously defend the right of citizens of the United States of America to speak freely in these areas—and to be heard.

Now, more than ever—it's up to you and all REAL PATRIOTS to support FDFA's efforts . . .

(And if you turn to page A-2, you can find an interesting overview of some of FDFA's work. It's a record we're rightfully proud to boast about!).

Your tax-exempt contribution to FDFA will provide FDFA the necessary resources to keep up the good fight . . .

And what's so fantastic is that you can take a tax-exemption for your donation and help reduce your own federal tax liability in the process.

Can you think of a better way to make your hard-earned money REALLY COUNT FOR SOMETHING in the fight to restore our America and make it a better place for our children and their children?

Keep reading for further details as to how you can make your donation to FDFA and free speech. There are multiple ways that you can do it . . .

FREE SPEECH

FDDFA has a track record we're proud of; please take a quick look . . .

When former Congressman Pete McCloskey (R-Calif.) filed a lawsuit against the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) of B'nai B'rith for its illegal domestic spying on law-abiding American citizens, FDDFA provided Pete critical funding and research material for his efforts. Ultimately, the former congressman forced the ADL to an embarrassing out-of-court settlement and we're proud that FDDFA played a part in that.

And when Alabama patriot Jim Floyd was arrested for burning both a United Nations flag and a Mexican flag in a public protest against the ever-growing wave of illegal immigration into the United States, FDDFA was there to help Jim and his attorneys . . .

Just recently, FDDFA made a grant to imprisoned former Congressman Jim Traficant who was railroaded into prison in 2002 on trumped-up corruption charges. Jim was the target of federal prosecutors who objected to his outspoken public criticisms of the FBI and the IRS and who were angry because he dared to challenge the power of the Israeli lobby and other special interest groups in official Washington.

The no-nonsense former Congressman said on more than one occasion that American Free Press was the only media voice that told the truth about the federal conspiracy to set him up and take him down.

Then there's the case of Yorie Kahl . . .

When Yorie Kahl and his valiant mother, Joan Kahl needed support (and they still do) in order to pursue Yorie's fight for freedom—convicted of a crime and sentenced to life in prison for a crime he did not commit—FDDFA joined the battle.

Yorie's father, Gordon, returned the fire of federal marshals who were pretending to arrest him for alleged offenses against the IRS. Gordon killed two marshals in self-defense and wounded four others. In Arkansas, nearly four months later, the FBI finally sneaked up on him and shot him in the back of the head execution-style as he ate supper. An attempt was made by the FBI to cover-up the crime by pouring five gallons of diesel fuel down the chimney, setting the house ablaze. A week later Gordon's burned feet and hands, which had been chopped off after his death, were found under the stove.

Even though Gordon freely admitted he was the one who had shot the marshals, federal prosecutors railroaded Gordon's son and friend, Scott Faul, into life terms for the crime. Yorie's now in Leavenworth and in failing health.

Here's how you can help FDDFA's work and take a tax deduction in doing it . . .

The following gifts, grants and donations can be made to FDDFA and can be deducted by you as charitable donations on your 2007 U.S. federal income tax return . . .

- Cash
- Trust Proceeds
- Real Estate
- Bonds
- Annuities
- Listed Securities
- Un-listed Securities
- Mutual Fund Shares
- Life Insurance Policies
- Closely-held Stock
- Restricted Securities
- Personal Properties

Feel free to check our IRS 501(c)(3) tax exempt certification: Case # 526052045 by calling: The Office of Tax Exempt Government Entities: 1-877-829-5500 and 513-263-3756 for a facsimile copy of FDDFA's current standing and by laws.

You may even put your property in trust, dedicate it to FDDFA and deduct its entire value from your income while still retaining control. A trust is a common device used by all wealthy people to keep their property out of the grasp of the tax collector.

Please let FDDFA hear from you if you are in a position to make a substantial contribution at this time that is totally tax-deductible.

Twenty-four years later, FDDFA continues to help him in his effort to win his freedom.

Most recently, FDDFA has helped provide expense money for the group of patriots who organized the successful NO MORE WARS FOR ISRAEL conference in Southern California, featuring a wide-ranging host of speakers from across the country who joined together to issue a clarion call for Americans to reassert our national sovereignty and put an end to the manipulation of U.S. foreign policy by a handful of agenda-driven intriguers backed by the coffers of the well-funded pro-Israel lobby in D.C.

FDFFA: Defending Freedom of Speech As Guaranteed by the Constitution

Recognizing that all human progress depends upon the maximum interchange and cross-fertilization of creative ideas in the areas of science, philosophy, history and political theory, the purpose of the FOUNDATION TO DEFEND THE FIRST AMENDMENT is to vigorously defend the right of citizens of the United States of America to speak freely in these areas and to be heard with censorship . . .

The FOUNDATION TO DEFEND THE FIRST AMENDMENT (FDFA), based in Washington, D.C., is engaged in an ambitious effort to advance the cause of freedom of speech and thought through a united legal front.

"As Americans, we need to protect the most provocative and candid speech, not just what is politically acceptable today," says Jim Tucker, author, veteran journalist and president of FDFA. "Now, with FDFA, we have an organization, located in the heart of Washington, D.C., that stands up for the First Amendment and for you.

"FDFA has been working earnestly to bring people together to safeguard our right to speak freely,"

DONATIONS: Large or small, we take them all!

If you do not have a big year-end FDFA donation to write off your taxes, it doesn't mean you can't support FDFA. For more than 20 years it's been the average $20 to $50 donations that have kept FDFA going. For small and large donors: FDFA is offering a small gift of appreciation for all of you who donate $20 or more to FDFA's cause. . . .

The Maxims of Napoleon

Yours free when you donate $20 or more. Made available to FDFA by its friends at THE BARNES REVIEW history magazine, this 90-page pocket booklet is loaded with great information in a beautiful format. Yours FREE for donating $20 or more to FDFA today.

Tucker says. "Without robust and healthy debate, we will never be able to solve the problems facing this great country. I hope everyone will support FDFA's efforts."

And for those looking for non-profit organizations to support, FDFA is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. All contributions to FDFA are therefore tax deductible.

TO CONTACT/DONATE TO FDFA: For more information, call FDFA at 202-547-5585 and ask to talk to a representative of FDFA. Write us at FDFA, 645 Pennsylvania Avenue SE, Suite 100, Washington, D.C. 20003 if you are interested in helping FDFA provide grants to those fighting First Amendment issues or if you know of someone who may be in need of FDFA's assistance.

FDFA is a D.C.-based charitable organization that upholds the cause of free speech and the First Amendment even when it is highly controversial and politically charged. In this age of powerful political pressure to suppress provocative opinions, Americans should come together to support the right to speak out and to speak freely. Help FDFA in its noble effort to secure the right for which our Founding Fathers fought and died to preserve.
