The True Roots Of Tea Party Are Grounded in 9-11

This week editor Mark Anderson shows that the tea party concept started out decentralized and focused on hot button issues such as a new probe of Sept. 11 and ending the Federal Reserve system. Unfortunately the honest and true intentions of patriotic, angry Americans attending nationwide tea parties have been refocused to a large extent by a GOP neo-con faction afraid of genuine rebellion. But there is hope for the tea partiers through truth. Read our intriguing report in this week's issue.

BECK BILGE PURE PROPAGANDA

FOX News commentator Glenn Beck and his neo-con consort Sarah Palin were in full form, misleading the masses Aug. 28 at the massive Washington, D.C. rally, attended by AFP's Victor Thorn and Peter Papaheraklis.

Read the news behind the news inside about how many tea party groups have been sucked into a larger "civil rights" movement that discourages dissent and will do nothing but uphold the status quo—and solve nothing.

AFP Demolishes 9-11 Fairy Tale

Since AFP's first post-9-11 issue, we've been heading the pack, exposing the government's lies

In this ninth year since the 9-11 attacks, AFP is once again hitting the 9-11 conspiracy and cover-up hard. This week AFP's Victor Thorn—himself a highly respected 9-11 researcher—is coming at the issue with both barrels blazing. Didn't think there was anything new on 9-11? Read Victor's reports and judge for yourself.

Bilderberg Laments the Revitalization of Global Populism

For years, the Bilderbergers and other subversive groups such as the Council on Foreign Relations, Trilateral Commission and individual one-world nerds without number have eaten away at Western governments from within like termites. Now they are sadly recognizing that people of all nations are waking up to their treason and rejecting their fond plans for world government. Read Jim Tucker's upbeat report.
