

AMERICANS RETAKING BORDER

Americans living in border towns in Texas, Arizona and New Mexico are in constant danger. Heavily armed narco-traffickers—the henchmen of violent Mexican drug cartels—are crossing the border in ever-increasing numbers, intent on distributing their poisonous wares to the youth of America. But volunteers from one law-abiding American group have had enough and are going where even the Minutemen won't. Jack Ready's Arizona "U.S. Border Guard" is arming itself military-style, seeking out these criminals and apprehending them for U.S. Border Patrol agents to pick up and deport, confiscating thousands of pounds of cocaine and marijuana for destruction by the feds in the process.

See BATTLE FOR THE BORDER, page 10

Above, members of Jack Ready's all-volunteer U.S. Border Guard are shown at a sign on the U.S. side of the border warning Americans to stay out of this national park as Mexican drug smugglers could be encountered.

Vote Fraud Expert Says Obama Stole Caucus Primaries

One woman says she has the proof to back up her claim that Barack Obama's political machine used every dirty trick at its disposal to win the primaries against Hillary Clinton. Physical assault, theft of sign-in sheets, verbal threats, doctoring of voter rolls, bogus signatures and the use of its own private racist intimidation force—the Black Panthers—all of these tactics and more were used to steal the 2008 Democratic primary. The caucus system, it appears, is seriously flawed. Read our story.

See PRIMARIES, page 4

Top GOP Legislator Declares Energy Tax Does Not Have Votes

Mitch McConnell of Kentucky, the Senate minority leader, recently averred that the dangerous "cap and trade" legislation designed to limit carbon emissions does not have the votes it needs to pass in the Senate. That, according to many, is great news for American industry and taxpayers.

See CAP AND TRADE, page 8

USS LIBERTY SURVIVOR . . .

Navy vet Phil Tournay is no stranger to adversity, in battle or in life. But when he and his family were recently threatened, this sailor got mad.

See USS LIBERTY, page 13

FRENCH HISTORIAN . . .

Softspoken Vincent Reynouard made only one mistake. He honestly reported his findings on the most taboo of historical subjects. Now he's in jail.

See FRENCH, page 17

IMF Report States Reserve Currency Should Be 'Bancor'

Just when you thought you had a handle on what the world's mega-bankers were up to, they throw you a major curve. The International Monetary Fund has issued a report that calls for reviving the "bancor," which is the name of a global currency first floated at the behest of John Maynard Keynes at the infamous Bretton Woods confab back in the mid-1940s. Read Mark Anderson's report.

See WWII-ERA GLOBAL, page 5

The Inside Scoop:

- Personal from the Editor 2
- News You May Have Missed 2
- How Barack Obama stole the primaries 4
- IMF resuscitates 1944 global currency idea 5
- Social credit confab aims to neuter bankers 6
- Inside the mind of Elena Kagan 7
- Spotlight on Congress 8
- 30 nations grow it—why not America? 9
- Private volunteer group works to stop invasion ... 10
- Illegal aliens getting "country club" treatment..... 11
- Who's sabotaging Mideast peace—again?..... 12
- Does Israel want naval hero silenced?..... 13
- Israel's secret cache of non-nuclear WMDs 14
- Drug program a backdoor to your privacy? 15
- Classifieds 16
- Frenchman jailed for publishing research 17
- Letters to the Editor 18
- Jim Traficant: Getting personally involved 19
- The Ryan Report: Less government is the key 19

0 94922 21305 1