

American Free Press

VOLUME IX • NUMBER 37 • SEPTEMBER 14, 2009 • WWW.AMERICANFREEPRESS.NET • $2.00

Foreign Companies Stand to Profit Big Off U.S. Motorists

America is literally selling her highways to foreign nations and non-U.S. companies are the ones who will make a bundle off U.S. motorists by turning our freeways into tollways. To make matters worse, several big-name U.S. agencies want to charge a 65-cent-per-mile toll on existing federal Interstates plus institute a steep commuter parking tax on all 125 major U.S. metro areas. Read our report.

See FOREIGN and WHOPPING, page 4

JIM TRAFICANT SET FREE

Wrongfully imprisoned Congressman comes home to warm welcome after spending seven years in federal jail

Former Congressman Jim Traficant has been released from a federal prison and, by the time you read this, he will be home. Set free Sept. 2 after serving seven years in jail for crimes he did not commit, thousands of friends and admirers were waiting back in Ohio to greet their hero. But watch out: the mainstream media is gearing up to smear Traficant again, even though those who know him say he is an honest man.

See JIM TRAFICANT, page 12

JIM TRAFICANT: Is ordeal finally over?

Taxing Stock Trades Could Raise Billions

New tax might not affect little guy; could raise $100 billion in revenue from Wall Street, say Dems, labor

One of the largest unions in the United States and some of its allies in Congress have proposed a novel way to get back some of the taxpayer money handed out to Wall Street in the past year: hit the big boys where it hurts the most—in their wallets. Fans of the new tax say it is a more than fair plan.

See AFL-CIO, page 8

Top House Leaders Say Federal Reserve Needs Oversight

See HOUSE LEADERS, page 8

Mexico Blames U.S. For Gun Violence Ravaging Country

U.S. gun banners and the Mexican government are teaming up to convince Americans that Mexico's burgeoning problem with drug cartels and a nationwide epidemic of killings and kidnappings is all the fault of U.S. gun laws.

See GUN BANNERS, page 6

Feds Invent New Loophole; Can Get Almost Anyone for 'Honest Services Fraud'

It can't really be defined and it is unconstitutionally vague. Even the language of the law itself is fraudulent. But even so, federal prosecutors are using the ambiguous "crime" of "honest services fraud" to lock up just about anyone they want. Find out how . . .

See HONEST, page 13

The Inside Scoop:

- Special Wrapper: THE NEW BABYLON..... A-1 to A-4
- Personal from the Editor 2
- News You May Have Missed 2
- Obama takes us down the road to Zimbabwe 3
- Foreign companies will profit from TTC 4
- How much will foreign-run toll roads cost? 4
- Mexico wants U.S. gun rights curbed 6-7
- Spotlight on Congress 8
 - AFL-CIO says tax stock trades 8
 - Healthcare debate a cover for big payoff 8
 - Congressmen embrace auditing Fed..... 8
- Palestine rejects "holocaust" education 9
- Israel's secret war against Iran 10
- South Americans leery of CIA activity 11
- Jim Traficant comes home 12
- 'Honest Services Fraud': What is it? 13
- Paul Craig Roberts: The real "Axis of Evil"..... 14-15
- Classifieds 16
- Rep. Ron Paul: Fed's days of autonomy over 17
- Letters to the Editor 18
- John Tiffany: What Israel really costs you 19
- The Ryan Report: Freedom of thought wins out 19

IMPORTANT:

No issue of AFP next week. Double issue for September 28.

Exposing Rothschild Intrigue: Pages A-1 to A-4.