Tea Party Participants Back in Washington; Thousands Attend

Thousands of “Tea Party” patriots thronged the U.S. Capitol in Washington November 5 and 6 to protest a proposed government takeover of the healthcare system. They heard a stirring speech by Rep. Michele Bachmann (R-Minn.) in what radio talk show host Chris Plante called a “one-two punch” to House Speaker Nancy Pelosi (D-Calif.) who champions a government-run healthcare system.

America’s Economic Outlook Not Nearly the Pretty Picture Spinmeisters Are Painting

Gross Domestic Product is up and inflation is nonexistent, they say. Fewer people are losing jobs. Wall Street is booming. The banks are in the black. It’s boom times again for the American economy. But don’t jump on the “economic recovery bandwagon” just yet.

PLANS FLOP FOR KINDER ISRAELI LOBBY

Congressmen, Powerful Politicians Too Scared to Challenge Influence of Israel’s Preeminent Lobby Group

It sounded good on paper, but maybe it was just a public relations ploy. When plans were announced for a more moderate Israeli lobby, America-firsters were ecstatic. And so were many in Congress. But once Israel condemned the concept, lawmakers who had pledged support for the new lobby abandoned it. Nearly everyone boycotted the meeting except President Barack Obama, who sent his national security advisor to speak.

‘SPIKE’ EVENTS:

What They Are and How They Are Used to Manipulate Chaos And Change World History

How much of America’s “public opinion” is forged by hysteria created by manipulated events? Keeping people alarmed over the next big disaster—real or imagined—is a mainstay of current U.S. governance politics. What will be the next “spike event”?

Don’t Audit Fed, Abolish it, Says Jim Traficant

“The Federal Reserve System should be abolished, not just audited so the politicians can feel good, but abolished.”
