JIM TUCKER'S BILDERBERG DIARY

By Michael Collins Piper

Although, in 1992, Larry Pope, then the executive editor of the Asheville, North Carolina Citizen Times newspaper, told one of his readers in a signed letter, flat out, that "to my knowledge, such an organization does not exist and a media conspiracy to keep its existence a secret would be ludicrous," the evidence demonstrates otherwise. (See reproduction, p. 13.)

Now, in the pages of Bilderberg Diary, Jim Tucker lays out—for the first time—his entire remarkable history of covering Bilderberg (and its Trilateral and CFR allies), literally infiltrating Bilderberg meetings, procuring their private documents, and working relentlessly to shine the spotlight of public scrutiny on Bilderberg's affairs.

Tucker's prose—first hand, folksy and colorful—will introduce you to the little-known arena of the Bilderberg elite. This volume is a memorable and panoramic journey that will lay bare the realities behind modern-day international power politics in a way that you've never seen before.

And the book includes several representative lists of Bilderberg membership over the past several years, more than 80 fascinating on-the-spot photographs of the Bilderbergers in action and photo reproductions of actual Bilderberg documents secured by Tucker. Plus a fascinating Foreword by AFP correspondent Christopher Bollyn who's accompanied Tucker on a number of his journeys abroad to cover Bilderberg. There's also an Afterword by Willis A. Carto, the man who first ordered Tucker to cover Bilderberg for The Spotlight newspaper, realizing what was happening behind closed doors at Bilderberg meetings was far more important—and sinister—than Bilderberg press releases were admitting.

If you've ever heard the mass media claim that concerns about Bilderberg are "just some crazy conspiracy theory," you'll definitely think otherwise as you travel with Jim Tucker into the world of Bilderberg.

THE POPE LETTER: Some supposedly "well-informed" newspaper editors don't even know what Bilderberg is, or they feign ignorance at the behest of their Bilderberg masters. The letter reproduced here is not an attempt at humor. The author of the letter, Larry Pope, then the executive editor of the Asheville Citizen-Times, was responding to a letter writer's inquiry as to why the newspaper never reported on the activities of the Bilderberg Group. Inside Bilderberg Diary you'll see "confidential memos" lifted by Tucker at Bilderberg meetings and evidence of the worldwide "Bilderberg media blackout."
