Bilderberg's history and origins—docum

An odd name, yes, but they're for real!

Many people laugh when they first hear the name “Bilderberg” and often times critics of so-called “conspiracy theories” will use the odd-sounding name to make light of those who are working to expose Bilderberg’s efforts to dictate the course of world affairs. But The Bilderberg Files provides so much powerful documentary information that no thoughtful and honest person can dispute the serious nature of the subject after having reviewed this volume. And, by the way, shown at right is the Hotel De Bilderberg in Holland where the group met in 1954 and from which the organization subsequently adopted its name . . .

Where ALL of the major global power groups intersect at once . . .

Look on the Internet and you’ll find ruminations about “the Illuminati” and “the Masons” and “the Jews” and/or “the Zionists” or “The New World Order Elite,” among various other real (or otherwise suspected) international forces at work today.

But the Bilderberg Meetings are where all of the significant power groups do literally meet face-to-face on an annual basis. There’s no doubt about it. The Bilderberg Files proves it once and for all!

Bilderberg, Trilateral, CFR— What’s the difference?

Don’t get confused. Don’t let the critics try to make you look foolish. Arm yourself with the facts . . .

While many patriots who are working to expose the machinations of the international elite often unintentionally confuse the Bilderberg group with the Trilateral Commission and the Council on Foreign Relations—two internationalist-oriented power blocs that operate as satellites of the Bilderberg group—The Bilderberg Files features an all-new special introduction delineating the connections (and differences) between the three groups.

Don’t get caught in the trap of operating on misinformation when writing and talking about these global intriguers. Here are the facts you need!

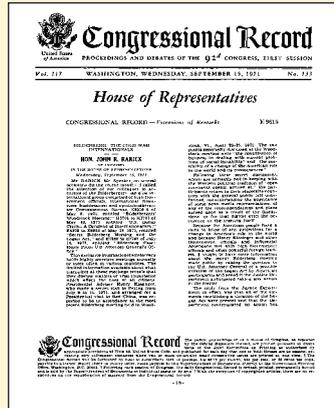

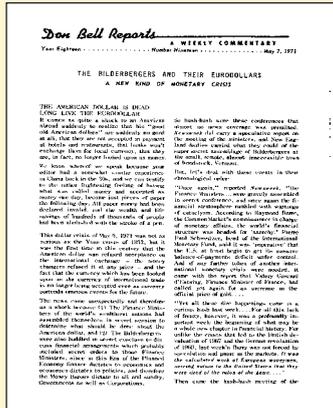

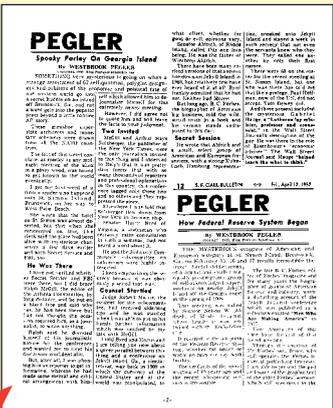

This informative data is worth the purchase price of the entire volume itself.

Rothschild and Rockefeller are some of the big names you'll find at every Bilderberg conference. But there are others . . .

Jacob Rothschild and his American satellite David Rockefeller are the “big names” behind Bilderberg, but you’ll also find in the extensive year-by-year membership lists appearing in The Bilderberg Files a virtual “who’s who” of the world’s richest and most powerful financiers, media moguls, industrialists and others. Some of the names may surprise you. . . .

Included in THE BILDERBERG FILES . . .

Exact photoreproductions of a variety of actual confidential Bilderberg documents that came into the hands of LIBERTY LOBBY’s Willis Carto who journeyed to Turkey in 1975 where Bilderberg was meeting. (Read all about it in The Bilderberg Files .) Carto, by the way, first learned of Bilderberg (although its name, at that time, was unknown to the great unwashed of the general public) through a report by famed American columnist Westbrook Pegler (reproduced in these pages). Carto—a friend of Pegler—made it his personal mission to find out precisely what was going on with this mysterious group and began an energetic campaign through LIBERTY LOBBY and through The Spotlight newspaper to investigate Bilderberg. Veteran journalist Jim Tucker (representing The Spotlight and later AMERICAN FREE PRESS) tailed Bilderberg all over Europe and the Western Hemisphere. Tucker’s account of his journeys appears in his popular Bilderberg Diary (shown at below right.) To order Tucker’s book and/or The Bilderberg Files , use the coupon below or the one on the reverse—page A-3—of this special “wrap.”
